Politically Exposed Persons (PEP)

The Bank is required to identify any person(s) linked to a Bank Account who may be politically exposed or is closely related to or close associates of a Politically Exposed Person.

Are you a PEP, or are closely related to or associated with a PEP? No Yes (If Yes, please state Name of PEP and relationship)

PEPs are individuals who have or have had prominent public positions in a country, such as a Head of State or of government, a senior government, judicial or military official, senior executives of state owned corporations, foreigners with diplomatic posts, important political party officials and their families or close associates of such persons. The term "families" includes close family members such as spouses, children, parents and siblings and may also include other blood relatives and relatives by marriage. The term "close associates" includes close business colleagues and personal advisors/consultants to the PEP as well as persons who obviously benefit significantly from being close to the person (for example; their accountants, lawyers etc.).

An international organisation PEP is a person who is or has been entrusted with a prominent function by an international organisation. This may include members of senior management or individuals who have been entrusted with equivalent functions, i.e. directors, deputy directors and members of the board or equivalent functions. An international organisation includes any organisation set up by either the governments of more than one country or any international organisation. Some examples include the Asian Development Bank, International Monetary Fund, and United Nations agencies such as UNICEF.
